

FREE Cancer Screening Available from NJCEED

Get Screened It Could Save Your Life

Saturday, June 4th - 1121 Elizabeth Ave. Elizabeth
Saturday, June 11th – 107 Park Ave. Plainfield

NJCEED Stands for: New Jersey Cancer Education & Early Detection

THE UNION COUNTY NJCEED PROGRAM PROVIDES FREE:

*BREAST

*CERVICAL

*COLORECTAL

*PROSTATE

CANCER SCREENING for those who qualify

 NJCEED Eligibility

- Uninsured or Underinsured
- With Household Income equal to or less than 250% of the Federal Definition of Poverty

Cancer Screening Services to be Provided On the Above Date:

- Breast Cancer: Clinical Breast Exams & Prescriptions for Free Mammograms for Women Age 40 to 64 & Younger Women with high risk factors
- Colorectal Cancer: FIT Kit Distribution & Processing of Returned Specimens for Women and Men Age 50 to 64
- Prostate Cancer: Blood Draw for subsequent PSA Testing for men 50 to 64 and age 45 to 50 for African American Men
- You will not be eligible if you have a previous diagnosis of cancer
- For more information contact Paul Fernandez
pfernandez@uniontownship.com

The Union County NJCEED Program is administered by Hoboken Family Planning, Inc. (201-963-0300) and is made possible by a grant from the New Jersey Department of Health