It is the intent and purpose of the Borough to attract the best qualified people to the service of the community and to provide effective supervision, guidance and working conditions for every Borough employee so that he or she may consistently perform with effectiveness. In addition to the foregoing, to discharge the Borough's responsibility to the residents of the community, it shall be imperative that everyone connected with the government of the Borough shall continually and conscientiously render diligent, efficient and courteous service. To accomplish such objectives, the Borough Council hereby declares the following principles to constitute the personnel policy of the Borough:

Every effort will be made to arrange vacation schedules to meet the individual desires of all employees. When there is conflict in the dates of proposed vacation schedules, the Department Head will consider a variety of issues including seniority, timing of the request, and personal need. The request shall be reviewed by the department head in terms of workload, other vacation requests in the department and the effect of the requested vacation on the proper operation and functioning of the department. All schedules shall be filed with the Borough Administrator and the payroll/personnel function.
- (1) Temporary, seasonal and part-time employees shall not be eligible for vacation time.
 - (2) A person employed before the 10th of the month shall be considered to have been employed for the entire month for purposes of calculating vacation time.

- B. The granting of a personal leave day shall be consistent with the needs of the department.
- C. Any unused personal days may be carried over into the next year and used as vacation.
- D. The smallest unit allowed to be used in computing personal leave absence shall be one-half (1/2) day, except as otherwise appropriate pursuant to the federal Family and Medical Leave Act and/or the New Jersey Family Leave Act.

Section 24. Extended leaves of absence.

- A. Leaves of Absence Under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act and/or New Jersey Family Leave Act

A leave of absence may be granted in accordance with the provisions and requirements of the federal Family Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. § 2601, et seq. and/or the New Jersey Family Leave Act: N.J.S.A. 34:11 B-1, et seq.

THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT OF 1993

The Family and Medical Leave Act (“FMLA”) entitles eligible employees to take up to 12 weeks of job-protected leave in a 12 month period for specified family and medical reasons. The law contains provisions on employer coverage; employee eligibility for the law's benefits; entitlement to leave, maintenance of health benefits during leave, and job restoration after leave; notice and certification of the need for FMLA leave; and, protection for employees who request or take FMLA leave.

EMPLOYEE ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for FMLA benefits, an employee must:

1. have worked for the Borough of New Providence for a total of 12 months; and
2. have worked at least 1,250 hours (including overtime, but excluding paid sick, vacation, or personal leave) over the previous 12 months (subject to special rules applicable to returning reservists pursuant to the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Act).

LEAVE ENTITLEMENT

An eligible employee may take up to a total of 12 workweeks of FMLA leave during any 12-month period for one or more of the following reasons:

- for the birth and care of the newborn child of the employee;
- for placement with the employee of a son or daughter for adoption or foster care;
- to care for an immediate family member (spouse, child, or parent) with a serious health condition; or
- to take medical leave when the employee is unable to work because of a serious health condition.

The Borough of New Providence will apply the “rolling-forward” method to calculate an employee’s entitlement to FMLA leave. By this method, the 12-month FMLA “leave year” is the period measured forward from the date the employee’s first FMLA leave begins.

When an employee takes leave for a reason covered by the New Jersey Family Leave Act (“FLA”) and the FMLA, the leave shall be simultaneously counted against an employee’s entitlement under both statutes to the extent permitted by law.

Spouses employed by the Borough of New Providence are jointly entitled to a combined total of 12 work-weeks of family leave for the birth and care of the newborn child, for placement of a child for adoption or foster care, and to care for a parent who has a serious health condition.

Leave for birth and care, or placement for adoption or foster care must conclude within twelve (12) months of the birth or placement.

Under some circumstances, employees may take FMLA leave intermittently — which means taking leave in blocks of time, or by reducing their normal weekly or daily work schedule.

- If FMLA leave is for birth and care or placement for adoption or foster care, use of intermittent leave is subject to the Borough of New Providence's approval.
- FMLA leave may be taken intermittently whenever medically necessary to care for a seriously ill family member, or because the employee is seriously ill and unable to work.

FMLA leave will be unpaid, unless the employee has available applicable accrued paid leave. In the event the employee has such available applicable accrued paid leave, to the extent permitted by law, the employee must first use any such applicable accrued leave, which time will be counted as FMLA leave. Once such applicable paid time off is exhausted, the remainder of the FMLA leave will be unpaid.

The Borough of New Providence is responsible for designating if an employee's use of paid leave counts as FMLA leave, based on information from the employee.

"Serious health condition" for purposes of the FMLA means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either:

- any period of incapacity or treatment connected with inpatient care (i.e., an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical-care facility, and any period of incapacity or subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care; or
- Continuing treatment by a health care provider which includes any period of incapacity (i.e., inability to work, attend school or perform other regular daily activities) due to:
 - (1) A health condition (including treatment therefore, or recovery therefrom) lasting more than three consecutive days, and any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to the same condition, that also includes:

- treatment two or more times by or under the supervision of a health care provider; or
 - one treatment by a health care provider with a continuing regimen of treatment; or
- (2) Pregnancy or prenatal care. A visit to the health care provider is not necessary for each absence; or
- (3) A chronic serious health condition which continues over an extended period of time, requires periodic visits to a health care provider, and may involve occasional episodes of incapacity (e.g., asthma, diabetes). A visit to a health care provider is not necessary for each absence; or
- (4) A permanent or long-term condition for which treatment may not be effective (e.g., Alzheimer's, a severe stroke, terminal cancer). Only supervision by a health care provider is required, rather than active treatment; or
- (5) Any absences to receive multiple treatments for restorative surgery or for a condition which would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three days if not treated (e.g., chemotherapy or radiation treatments for cancer).

"Health care provider" for purposes of the FMLA means:

- doctors of medicine or osteopathy authorized to practice medicine or surgery by the state in which the doctors practice; or
- podiatrists, dentists, clinical psychologists, optometrists and chiropractors (limited to manual manipulation of the spine to correct a subluxation as demonstrated by X-ray to exist) authorized to practice, and performing within the scope of their practice, under state law; or
- nurse practitioners, nurse-midwives and clinical social workers authorized to practice, and performing within the scope of their practice, as defined under state law; or
- Christian Science practitioners listed with the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts; or
- Any health care provider recognized by the Borough of New Providence or the Borough of New Providence's group health plan benefits manager.

MAINTENANCE OF HEALTH BENEFITS

During FMLA leave, the employee's health insurance coverage will be maintained under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had continued to work. Employees may be required to pay their share of health insurance premiums while on leave.

In some instances, the Borough may recover premiums it paid to maintain health coverage for an employee who fails to return to work from FMLA leave.

JOB RESTORATION

Generally, upon return from FMLA leave, the employee will be restored to his/her original job, or to an equivalent job with equivalent pay, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment. If the Borough of New Providence should experience a reduction in force or layoff, an employee who would have been affected by such a reduction in force or layoff had he/she not been on FMLA leave is not entitled to be returned to work following exhaustion or completion of FMLA leave, however, the employee retains all rights under any applicable lay off or recall system.

An employee's use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that the employee earned or was entitled to before using FMLA leave and FMLA leave will not be considered in discipline related to tardiness and/or attendance.

Under specified and limited circumstances where restoration to employment will cause substantial and grievous economic injury to its operations, the Borough of New Providence may refuse to reinstate certain highly-paid "key" employees after using FMLA leave during which health coverage was maintained. In order to do so, the Borough of New Providence will:

- notify the employee of his/her status as a "key" employee in response to the employee's notice of intent to take FMLA leave;
- notify the employee as soon as the Borough of New Providence decides it will deny job restoration, and explain the reasons for this decision;
- offer the employee a reasonable opportunity to return to work from FMLA leave after giving this notice; and
- make a final determination as to whether reinstatement will be denied at the end of the leave period if the employee then requests restoration.

A "key" employee is a salaried "eligible" employee who is among the highest paid ten percent of employees.

NOTICE AND CERTIFICATION

Employees seeking to use FMLA leave are required to provide 30-day advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable and such notice is practicable.

The Borough of New Providence may also require employees to provide:

- medical certification supporting the need for leave due to a serious health condition affecting the employee or an immediate family member;
- second or third medical opinions (at the Borough of New Providence's expense) and periodic recertification;
- periodic reports during FMLA leave regarding the employee's status and intent to return to work and
- medical certification of fitness for return to duty.

When intermittent leave is needed to care for an immediate family member or the employee's own illness, and is for planned medical treatment, the employee must try to schedule treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the Borough of New Providence's operation.

NO RETALIATION

There shall be not retaliation against any employee for exercising his/her rights under the FMLA and/or for taking leave.

QUESTIONS

Any questions regarding this policy or FMLA leave should be directed to the Borough Administrator.

THE NEW JERSEY FAMILY LEAVE ACT

The New Jersey Family Leave Act ("FLA") entitles eligible employees to take up to 12 weeks of job-protected leave in a 24-month period for specified reasons. The law contains provisions on employer coverage; employee eligibility for the law's benefits; entitlement to leave; notice and certification of the need for FLA leave; and, protection for employees who request or take FLA leave.

EMPLOYEE ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for FLA benefits, an employee must:

- have worked for the Borough of New Providence for a total of 12 months; and

- have worked at least 1,000 hours (including overtime, but excluding paid sick, vacation, or personal leave time) over the previous 12 months

LEAVE ENTITLEMENT

An eligible employee may take up to a total of 12 workweeks of FLA leave during any 24-month period for one or more of the following reasons:

- for the birth of a child of the employee;
- for placement with the employee of a child with the employee for adoption; or
- to care for the employee's family member (child, spouse, parent, or parent-in-law) with a serious health condition.

The Borough of New Providence will apply the rolling forward method to calculate an employee's entitlement to FLA leave. By this method, the 24-month period is measured forward from the date the employee's first FLA leave begins.

When an employee asks for leave for a reason covered by the federal Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA"), the leave shall be simultaneously counted against an employee's entitlement under both statutes to the extent applicable and permitted by law. In the case of maternity leave, the employee's FLA leave will not begin to run until the employee is released from disability by her health care provider or exhausts her FMLA leave, whichever occurs first. After release by her health care provider, any remaining FMLA leave will run concurrently with her FLA leave entitlement.

Leave for birth and care, or placement for adoption, must be commenced within 12 months of the birth or placement.

FLA leave taken on account of the serious illness of a family member may, in certain cases, be taken in the form of a reduced leave schedule, or when medically necessary, on an intermittent basis, rather than all at once. In the case of FLA leave taken on account of the birth or placement of a child for adoption, an employee may only take FLA leave intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule if the Borough of New Providence expressly so agrees.

FLA leave will be unpaid unless the employee has available applicable accrued paid leave. In the event the employee has such available applicable accrued paid leave, to the extent permitted by law the employee must first use any such applicable accrued leave, which time will be counted as FLA leave. Once such applicable paid time off is exhausted, the remainder of the FLA leave will be unpaid.

The Borough of New Providence is responsible for designating if an employee's use of paid leave counts as FLA leave, based upon information from the employee.

“Serious Health Condition” for purposes of the FLA means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which requires:

- inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility;
- continuing medical treatment or continuing supervision by a health care provider.

“Health Care Provider” for purposes of the FLA means any person licensed under federal, state, or local law, or the laws of a foreign nation, to provide health care services; or any other person who has been authorized to provide health care by a licensed health care provider.

MAINTENANCE OF HEALTH BENEFITS

During FLA leave, the employee’s health insurance coverage will be maintained under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had continued to work. Employees may be required to pay their share of health insurance premiums while on leave.

JOB RESTORATION

Generally, upon return from FLA leave, the employee will be restored to his/her original job, or to an equivalent job with like seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and conditions of employment.

If the Borough of New Providence should experience a reduction in force or layoffs, an employee who would have been affected by such reduction in force or layoff had he/she not been on FLA leave is not entitled to be returned to work following exhaustion or completion of FLA leave, however, the employee retains all rights under any applicable layoff and recall system.

The Borough of New Providence may deny FLA leave to certain of its highest paid salaried employees to the extent such denial is necessary to prevent substantial and grievous economic injury to the Borough of New Providence, upon notice to such employee. If such leave has already commenced, such employee shall be given ten (10) working days to return to work.

NOTICE AND CERTIFICATION

When FLA leave is sought due to the birth or placement of a child for adoption, the employee must provide at least thirty (30) days notice of the intention to take FLA leave when reasonably practicable. When FLA leave is sought due to a family member's serious illness, the employee must provide at least fifteen (15) days notice of the intention to take FLA leave, except where emergent circumstances warrant shorter notice.

An employee requesting FLA leave in order to care for the employee's seriously-ill spouse, child, or parent may be required to provide a certification issued by a health care provider supporting the need for the requested FLA leave.

NO RETALIATION

There shall be no retaliation against any employee for exercising his/her rights under the FLA and/or for taking FLA leave.

ARTICLE IX, Anti-Discrimination/Anti-Harassment Policy

Section 43. The Borough of New Providence Policy Against Discrimination and Harassment.

The Borough of New Providence is desirous of promoting and maintaining a working environment in which all employees are treated with respect and dignity. Discrimination or harassment of any kind are prohibited by federal and state law and/or Borough policy and will not be tolerated.

Sexual Harassment

It is the Borough's policy to prohibit harassment of or discrimination against any employee by another employee, supervisor, or visitor on the basis of sex or gender. The purpose of this policy is not to regulate personal morality within the Borough. It is to ensure that at our Borough all employees are free from harassment and discrimination on the basis of sex or gender. Sexual harassment is illegal and will not be tolerated.

While it is not easy to define precisely what sexual harassment is, examples of prohibited behavior include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other conduct of a sexual nature such as uninvited touching of a sexual nature or sexually-related comments, pictures, or communications. Similarly, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when: (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; and/or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Other Prohibited Harassment

It is also the Borough's policy to prohibit harassment of an employee on the basis of race, creed, national origin, ancestry, religion, age, marital, familial, and/or domestic partnership status, affectional or sexual orientation, genetic information, sex, disability, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, veteran status, service in the Armed Forces, refusal to submit to genetic testing and/or to make genetic testing results available, or any other trait or characteristic protected by law. Again, while it is not easy to precisely define these types of harassment, such harassment would certainly include slurs, epithets, threats, derogatory comments, unwelcome jokes, teasing, and other similar verbal or physical conduct. Similarly, discrimination on the basis of these protected categories is prohibited as outlined in the Borough's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy.

Reporting and Investigating Harassment

Anyone who feels that he or she has witnessed or been subjected to any type of harassment should immediately report the matter to any supervisor, the Borough Clerk, or the Borough Administrator.

Any supervisor who witnesses or receives a report or complaint of harassment, discrimination, or violation of this policy shall immediately report it to the Borough Clerk or the Borough Administrator.

Every report of perceived harassment, discrimination, or violation of this policy will be fully investigated and corrective action will be taken where appropriate.

No Retaliation

The Borough will not allow any form of retaliation against individuals who, in good faith, report harassment or discrimination, or who cooperate in good faith in the investigation of such any such report in accordance with this policy.

Violations

Violation of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Questions

If you have any questions about this policy, please contact the Borough Clerk or the Borough Administrator.

Section 44. Reasonable accommodation of disabilities.

In making decisions with respect to employment matters, the Borough:

- A. Shall not discriminate against an otherwise qualified individual with a disability.
- B. Shall make reasonable accommodations to allow an otherwise qualified individual to perform the essential function of the job as required by law.
