Section 4. Equal Opportunity in Employment

The Borough is committed to ensuring that all current and prospective employees are given equal opportunity and treatment. The Borough provides equal opportunities for all applicants and employees without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, nationality, ancestry, religion, age, marital, civil union status, domestic partnership status, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, sex, disability, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, veteran status, liability for service in the Armed Forces, refusal to submit to genetic testing and/or to make genetic test results available, or any other trait or characteristic protected by civil rights laws. Confidentiality

Personnel files are confidential records and will be maintained in the office of the Human Resources Officer in a locked file. The files will be in two groups: Employee Personnel Files and Employee Medical Files. Government regulations require that employee medical information be maintained in a separate file from the employee's personnel file. Files will be maintained as "active files," representing employees on the payroll, and "terminated files," for employees no longer in the service of the Borough for both Employee Personnel Files and Employee Medical Files. Forms I-9 shall be kept separate and apart from the Employee Personnel Files and the Employee Medical Files.

Accessibility

Only the Borough Administrator, Human Resources staff and those authorized by the Borough Administrator may have access to any or all of the personnel files on a need-to-know basis, and such access shall be limited to legitimate personnel-related purposes. The Human Resources Officer, or in his/her absence the Borough Clerk, shall be responsible for controlling such access.

The entire Borough Council shall be informed prior to the Mayor or any Borough Council member requesting access to any specific personnel file. A Department Head may have access only to personnel files of employees within his/her department.

Any employee may, at a reasonable time and in the presence of the Human Resources Officer or his/her designate, examine his/her personnel file.

Section 6. Borough Open Door Policy

To foster sound employee-employer relations through communication and reconciliation of work-related problems, the Borough provides employees with an established procedure for expressing employment related concerns. If a complaint is one of discrimination or harassment, please go to the policies on Non-Discrimination and Equal Employment Opportunity and Anti-Harassment and follow the procedures noted there. If you have a Whistleblower Complaint, please go to the Whistleblower Policy and follow the procedures there.

In situations where employees feel a work-related complaint is in order, the following steps should be taken:

- a) If an employee believes that he/she has a legitimate work-related complaint, the employee is encouraged to first attempt to resolve the issue(s) through discussions with his/her immediate Supervisor. The Supervisor shall not exceed his/her authority nor the discretion within which he/she may act.
- b) If the situation is not satisfactorily settled verbally within forty-eight (48) hours from the time the complaint is discussed with the employee's immediate Supervisor, the employee may, request a meeting with the Human Resources Officer. At the time of making the request for a meeting with the Human Resources Officer, the employee shall succinctly set forth his/her complaint in writing along with all supporting documentation.

Article II – Conditions of Employment

Section 7. Recruiting Procedures

Recruitment for Open Positions

The Borough utilizes various means to advertise an open position, depending on the position. Examples are internal postings on Borough bulletin boards, the Borough website and other Internet sites, local access television, newspapers and professional publications or other means of recruitment that may be applicable to each specific opening.

Residency Requirements for Employees

In accordance with the "New Jersey First Act" (P.L. 2011, c, 70), effective September 1, 2011, Borough employees shall have their "principal residence" in the State of New Jersey. There are several limited exemptions to the law:

- a) Employees hired on or after September 1, 2011 who are not a resident when hired receive a one year exemption. If they fail to establish residency within that year, they shall be deemed unqualified for holding the office, employment, or position.
- b) Employees, officers, and appointees who did not meet the residency requirement on the effective date (i.e., residency was out-of-state on 9/1/2011), are exempted unless they break public service for a period of time greater than seven days.

All employees must be in compliance with this law and this stipulation is incorporated into the recruitment process.

Interview and Selection

After applications are submitted, interviews shall be conducted by Human Resources and/or the Department Head, who shall recommend applicant(s) for employment to the Borough Administrator, who may conduct a second interview in his or her discretion. The applicant may be tested for various skill sets, i.e., computer skills, driving skills, etc. appropriate to the position being applied for. After recommendation for employment, reference checks will be performed.

When a candidate agrees to a position, a Resolution of Appointment shall be submitted to the Borough Council to effect the appointment and set compensation and other terms of employment, as may be appropriate. Unless otherwise specifically noted, all employment is "AT-WILL".

Medical Examination and Drug Screening

The Borough reserves the right to require a medical examination and/or drug screening as a condition of employment. Such examination will be conducted after a conditional offer of employment is made, but before the employee starts work.

Background Checks, Including Sex Offender Checks, Are Required of All Candidates

It is the Borough's policy to conduct criminal background checks of all employees and volunteers. In addition, the Borough reserves the right to require credit and motor vehicle background checks, or physicals as a condition of employment dependent upon the specific position for which a candidate applies. Pre-employment screenings will be conducted after a conditional offer of employment is made, but before the employee starts work. A signed authorization from the applicant is required before a background check may be requested from an outside reporting agency.

Sex Offender checks are required of all candidates, whether paid or volunteer, that may work directly with children/youth/minors. Seasonal employees over the age of 18 that work in Parks and Recreation seasonal programs, i.e., pool, camp, shall have Sex Offender checks conducted by the Community Activities Director or designee.

If the background check is favorable, Human Resources will notify the hiring Supervisor that the candidate is approved to begin employment/volunteer duties.

The Human Resources Officer shall be informed of any information that would disqualify a person from working with children/youth/minors. The Human Resources Officer will review the information in consultation with legal counsel. The Human Resources Officer will inform the candidate of any information that would disqualify the person from working with children/youth/minors.

Some Borough positions require a job related physical examination, including drug screening to determine whether the candidate is capable of performing essential functions of the position being offered. The Borough coordinates the appointment, and the examinations are at no cost to the applicant.

Results of all background checks and physicals will be kept confidential and will not be disclosed to any person except to the extent necessary to administer and enforce this policy, or as required by law or appropriate legal process. Such information will not be deemed a public record under P.L. 1963, C. 72 (C:47:1A-1, et. seq.) as amended and supplemented by P.L. 2001, c. 404 (C:47:1A-5, et seq.).

Once a candidate has been notified of a disqualifying condition, the candidate has 14 calendar days to file a letter to appeal the decision to the Human Resources Officer, requesting a hearing with the Borough Administrator. In making a determination on the appeal, the following types of information will be considered:

- The nature and responsibility of the position which the convicted individual would hold;
- The nature and seriousness of the crime or offense;
- The circumstances under which the crime or offense occurred;
- The date of the crime or offense;
- The age of the individual when the crime or offense was committed;
- Whether the crime of offense was an isolated or a repeated incident;

- Any social conditions which may have contributed to the commission of the crime or offense;
- Any evidence of rehabilitation, counseling or psychiatric treatment received;
- Acquisition of additional academic or vocational schooling, successful participation in correctional work-release programs, or the recommendation of those who have had the individual under their supervision.

The Borough Administrator's decision shall be final and binding.

Section 8. Initial Employment Period

Except where state requirements direct otherwise, all new employees (or present employees transferring to new positions) go through an initial trial period of adjustment of not less than three months or more than one year, as determined by the Human Resources Officer upon recommendation by the Department Head.

During this time, the new employee will be closely monitored. The new employee may be discharged at any time during this period if the Supervisor concludes that the new employee is not progressing or performing satisfactorily. Under appropriate circumstances, the Borough Administrator may extend the Initial Employment Period. Additionally, as is true at all times during an employee's employment with the Borough, employment, unless otherwise specifically noted, is not for any specific time and may be terminated at will, with or without cause and without prior notice. Employees in their Initial Employment Period may not apply for other jobs within the Borough. At the end of the Initial Employment Period, the employee's Supervisor will evaluate the employee. Provided the employee's job performance is satisfactory, the employee will continue in the Borough's employment as an "at-will employee" and may be eligible for a salary adjustment in accordance with the applicable salary ordinance.

Police Officer's Oath of Office

All Police Officers will be sworn in by the Mayor or Borough Clerk and are required to take Oaths of Office.

Date of Employment

Every employee is appointed by the Borough Council. The employee's hire date is, at the earliest, the date of the Borough Council's appointment.

NOTHING IN THIS SECTION SHALL BE DEEMED TO CREATE A GUARANTEE OF CONTINUED EMPLOYMENT OR ALTER THE AT-WILL NATURE OF EMPLOYMENT.

Section 9. Physical examinations.

- Before Commencing Employment. After making an offer of employment, but before commencing work, the Borough reserves the right to require employees to undergo a medical examination to determine whether employee can perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation.

Section 10. Date of employment for accrual of vacation. [Added 10-10-1995 by Ord. No. 95-9]

- A. For the purpose of calculating accrual of vacation time, the date of employment shall be the date originally appointed by the Borough of New Providence. - B. Date of appointment is generally not considered for matters beyond accrual of vacation time.

Section 11. Improper disclosure of information. [Amended 10-10-1995 by Ord. No. 95-9]

The conduct of Borough affairs is open to public scrutiny. However, it shall be the responsibility of Borough employees to restrict security matters, personnel administration and other material of a non-public and confidential nature as determined by the Mayor and Council, to the Mayor, Council and affected department heads, supervisors and other persons on a need-to-know basis. Improper disclosure of such information shall constitute a breach of discipline and subject the employee to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge. Requests by the public for information considered confidential should be referred to the Borough Administrator.

All personnel files relating to employees of the Borough shall be maintained under the control of the Human Resources Officer in a secure location. Medical information shall be maintained in a separate file under the control of the Human Resources Officer. Forms I-9 shall be maintained in a separate file under the control of the Human Resources Officer. Access to personnel files shall be limited to Borough personnel with a legitimate business need to access the contents thereof.

Section 12. Restrictions on other employment.

- A. Full-time Borough employees may neither perform work for another employer nor operate a business which will at any time interfere with their assigned duties as employees of the Borough, nor interfere with the normal standard hours of work for their office, all as determined in the sole discretion of the Borough.
- B. In the event that a Borough employee does perform regular work for another employer or does operate a business, which interferes with his/her assigned duties or normal standard hours of work, he/she will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.

- C. No full-time employee or permanent part-time employee may engage in regular work for another employer or operate a business without first obtaining approval for such work or business. In the case of full-time employees, approval must be obtained from the Borough Council. The Borough Council may grant approval for such additional employment only if it is clearly shown by the department head and Borough Administrator that such additional work outside the Borough will in no way interfere with the Employee's assigned duties for the Borough. [Added 10-10-1995 by Ord. No. 95-9]. In the case of permanent part time employees or part time employees, approval must be obtained from the Borough Administrator.
- D. Any employment by another governmental authority is prohibited unless expressly approved by the Borough Council. [Added 10-10-1995 by Ord. No. 95-9]
- E. No employee may perform work for another employer nor operate a business which results in a reasonable likelihood of a resulting conflict of interest with the Borough.

Section 13. Partisan political activity prohibited during working hours and compliance with Code of Ethics.

- A. Borough employees shall not engage in any partisan political activities during working hours. Employees shall not use any Borough resources (including but not limited to fax machines, computers (emailing), and others to express an opinion about or attempt to influence the outcome of any matter being determined during an election, including without limitation, public questions placed on the ballot.

- D. All Borough employees are required to be aware of and abide by the Borough's Pay to Play Ordinances (Nos. 2004-24 and 2004-15) and any amendments thereto, which are codified in Chapter 41 of the Borough Ordinances.
- E. All Borough employees are required to be aware of and abide by New Jersey Ethics Law N.J. 40A:9-22.1 et seq.

Section 14. Contagious or Life Threatening Illness Policy

The Borough has a legal obligation and is committed to providing a safe and healthy work environment for all employees and to the public. Accordingly, employees of the Borough who have been diagnosed with any illness that poses a health hazard to other employees or to the public must immediately disclose this information to their Department Head. The Department Head shall consult with the Human Resources Officer and the Borough physician and/or Borough Public Health Nurse, to assist in making a determination as to the appropriate course of action. Medical information about the employee will be kept confidential.

Employees who fail to disclose contagious illnesses or illnesses which would pose a direct threat to the health and safety of other employees or the public will subject the employee to discipline, up to and including discharge.

The Borough treats life-threatening/catastrophic illnesses in accordance with its policy on equal employment opportunity and the requirements of the New Jersey Law against Discrimination and the Americans with Disabilities Act. The Borough recognizes that a supportive and caring response from Supervisors and coworkers is an important factor in maintaining the quality of life for an employee with a life-threatening/catastrophic illness.

An employee's health condition is private and confidential. An employee is under no obligation to disclose his or her condition to a Supervisor or any other employee of the Borough unless such condition impacts the ability of the employee to safely perform his/her job or imperils the safety of others. If an employee notifies a Supervisor of his/her medical condition, the Supervisor is expected to take careful precaution to protect the confidentiality of information regarding the employee's health condition.

The Borough recognizes that an employee with a medical condition may wish to continue his/her employment. All decisions regarding continued employment will be based on the ability of the employee to perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation, and, to the extent appropriate, receipt of satisfactory medical evidence that the employee does not present a threat to him/herself or others.

Employees with questions or concerns about contagious or life-threatening illnesses are encouraged to contact the Human Resources Officer.

Section 15. Violence in the Workplace

The Borough of New Providence maintains the policy that any violent acts, or threats of same, made by an employee against another person's life, health, well-being, and family or property or for the purpose of intimidation are entirely unacceptable and cause for disciplinary action, up to and including immediate dismissal. This policy applies to any threats made on Borough property, at Borough events or under other circumstances that may negatively affect the Borough's ability to conduct business. Such acts or threats of violence, whether made directly or indirectly, by words, gestures or symbols infringe upon the Borough's right or obligation to provide a safe workplace for its employees.

Section 26. Personal Blogging and Social Network Policy

Social networking, both professional and personal, is a popular way to connect with friends, foster relationships and create a complex group of online networks and online communities. However, these new communication and networking opportunities also create new responsibilities for those who engage in social networking. Employees who choose to use or contribute to online media are not only impacting their personal image, but may be potentially impacting the image of the Borough. The purpose of this policy is to provide reasonable guidelines for online behavior for employees of the Borough.

General Rule

When communicating in social media, you act at your own peril. Employees must never engage in communication which discloses confidential information. Also, remember that your own reputation is at risk - what you say or do, even if not otherwise connected to the Borough, may be seen by others who will make judgments about you based upon what you place online. Your position in the Borough could thus be impacted by your personal internet activities. This Internet Postings Policy applies, but is not limited, to use of the following multimedia and social networking websites:

- a) Media such as, but not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, MySpace, LinkedIn, You-Tube, etc.;

- b) Websites and Blog Site(s) including Personal Blog(s);

- d) Social bookmarks such as Digg and Delicious.

All of these activities on these sites are referred to as "Internet postings" in this Policy.

Please be aware that a violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment by the Borough.

Think before you type! Common sense is the best guide if you decide to post information that is in any way related to the Borough, its residents or your employment. If you are unsure about information to be disclosed in any particular posting, please contact the Borough Administrator or Human Resources Officer.

You are personally responsible for all online activity conducted with a Borough email address and/or which can be traced back to the Borough's domain name, and/or which uses the Borough's resources. This includes activity conducted on personal social networks that reference your affiliation with the Borough or your status as an employee of the Borough. You are not to engage in communication therein which is critical or injurious to the Borough, its citizens, fellow employees or suppliers. Failure to comply will result in discipline, up to and including termination. Outside of employment (i.e. in your capacity as a citizen), you can still be subject to employment discipline. However, under the Federal and State Constitutions, you generally (but not always) have the right as a citizen to freedom of speech and to address matters of public concern. In addition, as an employee, you have certain protected special rights under the New Jersey Employer – Employee Relations Act. If you identify yourself as a Borough employee in any manner on any internet posting or blog, comment on any aspect of the Borough's business or post a link to the Borough, you must include the following disclaimer in an openly visible location: "the views expressed on this post are mine and do not necessarily reflect the views of Borough or anyone associated/affiliated with Borough." Please be aware that the term "internet postings" is not limited to blog postings, it also includes comments, videos and images. When posting your point of view, you should neither claim nor imply you are speaking on behalf of the Borough, unless you are authorized in writing by Borough Administrator to do so.

Do not use the Borough's logos or trademarks in your postings without express permission from the Borough. Furthermore, you should comply with copyright, privacy, fair use and other applicable laws.

You are also liable for postings which contain material misrepresentations about the Borough. These types of posts are prohibited under this policy.

You are also liable for postings which include confidential or copyrighted information, such as music, videos, text, etc., belonging to third parties. These types of posts are also prohibited under this policy.

If a member of the news media or blogger contacts you about an Internet posting that concerns Borough's business, immediately bring this to the attention of Borough Administrator. Also, please be respectful when responding on behalf of the Borough to negative posts.

Your Internet postings should not violate any other applicable Borough policy, including, but not limited to, the following: Anti-Harassment Policy, Non-Discrimination and Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, and E-Mail and Internet Code of Conduct Policy.

You agree that the Borough shall not be liable, under any circumstances, for any errors, omissions, loss or damages claimed or incurred due to any of your Internet postings.

Consistent with the foregoing guidelines and in accordance with applicable law (if any), the Borough may request, in its sole and absolute discretion, that you temporarily or permanently confine your website, web log or other commentary to topics unrelated to the Borough if it believes this is necessary or advisable to ensure compliance with laws or regulations.

Failure to comply with these requests may lead to discipline up to and including termination; and if appropriate, the Borough may pursue any and all legal remedies available against you.

Vacation schedules shall be filed with Human Resources Officer.
 - (1) Part time employees, as well as casual, temporary or seasonal employees shall not be eligible for vacation time.
- B. Vacation time must be used in the year in which it is earned. The only exception is if an employee is unable to use his or her vacation time by reason of illness, because required to work during such period by the Borough, extenuating personal circumstances or other reason provided by law. In such cases, such employee shall be permitted the unused vacation time at a subsequent period, or equivalent payment of compensation shall be made upon certification by the appropriate Department Head and approval by the Borough Administrator. - C. To the extent permitted by law, the Borough reserves the right to have the employee examined by a physician of the Borough's choice at any time and certified as fit for duty before returning to work, regardless of the length of absence. During periods of illness or disability as noted in paragraph A, the Borough may require interim reports on the condition of the employee from the employee's attending physician and/or from a physician of the Borough's choice. Such reports shall be submitted to the Borough Administrator and maintained under his control on a confidential basis. [Amended 10-10-1995 by Ord. No. 95-

9] All such records shall be maintained separately from the employee's personnel file in a secure location.

Section 34. Paid Personal leave

Full-time employees hired prior to May 15, 1996 shall be entitled to five (5) days of paid personal leave per calendar year subject to the conditions set forth in Borough Ordinance § 73-25A through E. Full-time employees hired after May 15, 1996, who have completed at least 6 months employment as a full-time employee in his/her first calendar year, shall be entitled to three (3) days of paid personal leave per calendar year thereafter, subject to the conditions set forth in Borough Ordinance §73-25A through E.

- A. Notification of a request for personal leave shall be made at least 24 hours in advance of the requested leave, except in case of emergency.
- B. The granting of a personal leave day shall be consistent with the needs of the department.
- C. Any unused personal leave days are carried over into the next calendar year and may be taken as vacation.
- D. The smallest unit allowed to be used in computing personal leave absence shall be one-half (1/2) day, except as otherwise appropriate pursuant to the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act and/or the New Jersey Family Leave Act.

Section 35. Bereavement Leave

Employees shall be entitled to 24 hours of bereavement leave in the event of death of immediate family members which shall include spouse, domestic partner, civil union partner, child or stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, sibling, parent-in-law, child-in-law, legal guardian, or other member of the employee's household.

Section 36. Leaves of absence under the FMLA and NJFLA

Leaves of absence under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and New Jersey Family Leave Act (NJFLA).

A leave of absence may be granted in accordance with the provisions and requirements of the federal Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. § 2601, et seq. and/or the New Jersey Family Leave Act: N.J.S.A. 34:11B-1, et seq.

Section 36a. The Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993

The Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") entitles eligible employees to take up to 12 weeks of job-protected unpaid leave in a 12 month period for specified family and medical reasons.¹ The law contains provisions regarding employer coverage; employee eligibility for the law's benefits; entitlement to leave, maintenance of health benefits during leave, and job restoration after leave; notice and certification of the need for FMLA leave; and protection for employees who request or take FMLA leave.

A. EMPLOYEE ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for FMLA benefits, an employee must:

1. have worked for the Borough of New Providence during the 12 month period immediately preceding commencement of the leave; and
2. have worked at least 1,250 hours (including overtime, but excluding paid sick, vacation, or personal leave) over the previous 12 months (subject to special rules applicable to returning armed services members pursuant to the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Act).

B. LEAVE ENTITLEMENT

An eligible employee may take up to a total of 12 workweeks² of FMLA leave during any 12-month period for one or more of the following reasons:

- for the birth and care of the newborn child of the employee;
- incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- for placement with the employee of a son or daughter for adoption or foster care;
- to care for an immediate family member (generally spouse, child, or parent) with a serious health condition;
- for a serious health condition of the employee, whereby the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of his/her job, including incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth, as well as any period of incapacity or treatment for a chronic serious health condition;
- in connection with an employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent on active duty or call to duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation in order to address certain qualifying exigencies (including, but not necessarily limited to attending certain military events, arranging for alternative child care, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment briefings); or to care for a covered service member with a serious illness or injury (up to 26 weeks during a single 12-month period).

¹ An eligible employee may utilize up to 26 weeks of FMLA leave for care of a covered armed services member with a serious injury or illness.

² 26 weeks in case of a covered armed services member with a serious injury or illness.

The Borough of New Providence will calculate the 12 month FMLA “leave year” measured forward from the date when the employee’s first FMLA leave begins.³

When an employee takes leave for a reason covered by the FMLA and the New Jersey Family Leave Act (“NJFLA”), the leave shall be simultaneously counted against an employee’s entitlement under both statutes to the extent permitted by law. FMLA leave will also commence and run concurrently with any New Jersey Family Temporary Disability Insurance (“NJFTDI”) benefits and any other applicable statutory leave, for instance, the New Jersey Security and Financial Empowerment Act (“N.J. SAFE Act”). Additional information about NJFTDI benefits and N.J. SAFE Act is available from Human Resources.

Leave for birth and care, or placement for adoption or foster care must conclude within twelve (12) months of the birth or placement.

Under some circumstances, employees may take FMLA leave intermittently — which means taking leave in blocks of time, or by reducing their normal weekly or daily work schedule.

- If FMLA leave is for birth and care of a healthy child or placement for adoption or foster care, use of intermittent leave is subject to the Borough of New Providence’s approval.
- FMLA leave may be taken intermittently whenever medically necessary to care for a serious health condition of oneself, child, parent or covered service member, and for a qualifying exigency relative to deployment of a spouse, son, daughter, or parent.
- Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the Borough of New Providence’s operations.

FMLA leave will be unpaid, unless the employee has available applicable accrued vacation, sick or personal paid leave. In the event the employee has such available earned paid time off, the employee must use it during FMLA leave. Once such applicable paid time off is exhausted, the remainder of the FMLA leave will be unpaid.

The Borough of New Providence is responsible for designating an employee's leave as FMLA leave based on information supplied by the employee and/or the employee’s request for leave. The Borough shall advise employee of the start and end dates of the FMLA leave.

"Serious health condition" for purposes of the FMLA generally means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:

³ In the case of leave to care for a covered armed services member, the 26 week period will be calculated forward from the first such leave taken.

- any period of incapacity or treatment connected with inpatient care (i.e., an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical-care facility, and any period of incapacity or subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care; or
- Continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that prevents the employee from performing the essential functions of the employee's job. Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive calendar days combined with at least two (2) treatments by a health care provider or one treatment with a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy or for prenatal care,⁴ or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

"Health care provider" for purposes of the FMLA generally means:

- doctors of medicine or osteopathy authorized to practice medicine or surgery by the state in which the doctors practice; or
- podiatrists, dentists, clinical psychologists, optometrists and chiropractors (limited to manual manipulation of the spine to correct a subluxation as demonstrated by X-ray to exist) authorized to practice, and performing within the scope of their practice, under state law; or
- nurse practitioners, nurse-midwives and clinical social workers and physician assistants authorized to practice, and performing within the scope of their practice, as defined under state law; or
- Christian Science practitioners listed with the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts; or
- Any health care provider recognized by the Borough of New Providence or the Borough of New Providence's group health plan benefits manager.

C. MAINTENANCE OF HEALTH BENEFITS

During FMLA leave, the employee's health insurance coverage will be maintained under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had continued to work. Employees may be required to pay their share of health insurance premiums while on leave where consistent with applicable collective negotiations agreements and/or health insurance plans in effect at the time of leave.

⁴ Prenatal care also qualifies as a "serious health condition" under the FMLA.

The Borough may recover premiums it paid to maintain health coverage for an employee if the employee fails to return to work from FMLA leave.

D. JOB RESTORATION

Generally, upon return from FMLA leave, the employee will be restored to his/her original job, or to an equivalent job with equivalent pay, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment. If the Borough of New Providence should experience a reduction in force or layoff, an employee who would have been affected by such a reduction in force or layoff had he/she not been on FMLA leave is not entitled to be returned to work following exhaustion or completion of FMLA leave; however, the employee retains all rights, if applicable, regarding recall.

Except as otherwise permitted under applicable law, an employee's use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that the employee earned or was entitled to before using FMLA leave, and properly utilized FMLA leave will not be considered in discipline related to tardiness and/or attendance.

Under specified and limited circumstances where restoration to employment will cause substantial and grievous economic injury to its operations, the Borough of New Providence may refuse to reinstate certain highly-paid "key" employees after using FMLA leave during which health coverage was maintained. In order to do so, the Borough of New Providence will:

- notify the employee of his/her status as a "key" employee in response to the employee's notice of intent to take FMLA leave and advise of consequences to job reinstatement and health benefits if employer should determine that substantial and grievous injury will result from reinstatement;
- notify the employee as soon as the Borough of New Providence decides it will deny job restoration, and explain the reasons for its decision;
- offer the employee a reasonable opportunity to return to work from FMLA leave after giving notice noted immediately above; and
- make a final determination as to whether reinstatement will be denied at the end of the leave period if the employee still requests restoration.

A "key" employee is a salaried "eligible" employee who is among the highest paid ten percent of employees.

E. NOTICE AND CERTIFICATION

Employees seeking to use FMLA leave are required to provide 30-day advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable and such notice is practicable. When 30 days' notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable. Employee must generally also comply with the Borough's applicable call-in procedures regarding absences/tardiness.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the Borough to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA leave and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform essential job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the Borough if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA was previously taken for granted.

The Borough of New Providence may also require employees to provide:

- medical certification supporting the need for leave due to a serious health condition affecting the employee or immediate family member;
- certification of qualifying exigency;
- second or third medical opinions (at the Borough of New Providence's expense) and periodic recertification;
- periodic reports during FMLA leave regarding the employee's status and intent to return to work.

Medical certification of fitness for return to work will be required where an employee's FMLA leave was due to the employee's own serious health condition.

The Borough will notify employees requesting leave whether they are eligible for FMLA leave, and if they are not, the reasons for their ineligibility. Where leave is being designated as FMLA leave, the employee shall be so notified.

F. NO RETALIATION

There shall be no retaliation against any employee for exercising his/her rights under the FMLA and/or for taking FMLA leave, nor will there be interference with the assertion of FMLA rights. Any such concerns should be immediately reported to the Borough Administrator.

NOTE: The FMLA statute supersedes any statement herein to the extent that any statement is contrary to the current FMLA statute.

G. QUESTIONS

Any questions regarding this policy on FMLA leave should be directed to the Manager of Payroll and Human Resources.

Section 36b. The New Jersey Family Leave Act (NJFLA)

The New Jersey Family Leave Act (“NJFLA”) entitles eligible employees to take up to 12 weeks of job-protected unpaid leave in a 24-month period for specified reasons. The law contains provisions on employer coverage; employee eligibility for the law’s benefits; entitlement to leave; notice and certification of the need for NJFLA leave; and protection for employees who request or take NJFLA leave.

A. EMPLOYEE ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for NJFLA benefits, an employee must:

- have worked for the Borough of New Providence for a total of 12 months immediately preceding the leave; and
- have worked at least 1,000 hours (including overtime, but excluding paid sick, vacation, or personal leave time) over the previous 12 months

B. LEAVE ENTITLEMENT

An eligible employee may take up to a total of 12 workweeks of NJFLA leave during any 24-month period for one or more of the following reasons:

- for the birth of a child of the employee;
- for placement with the employee of a child for adoption; or
- to care for the employee’s family member (generally child, spouse, civil union partner, or parent, parent in law) with a serious health condition.

The Borough of New Providence will calculate the 24-month period measured forward from the date the employee’s first NJFLA leave begins.

When an employee takes leave for a reason also covered by the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (“FMLA”), the leave shall be simultaneously counted against an employee’s entitlement under both statutes to the extent applicable and permitted by law. However, taking leave only available under FMLA does not prevent the employee from also taking leave for a reason covered by the NJFLA. NJFLA leave will also run concurrently with any NJFTDI benefits and any other statutory leave, such as the N.J. Security and Financial Empowerment Act (“N.J. SAFE Act”).

Leave for birth and care of a child, or placement for adoption, must be commenced within 12 months of the birth or placement.

NJFLA leave taken on account of the serious illness of a family member may, in certain cases, be taken in the form of a reduced leave schedule, or when medically necessary, on an intermittent basis, rather than all at once. In the case of NJFLA leave taken on account of the birth of a child or placement of a child for adoption, an employee may only take NJFLA leave intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule if the Borough of New Providence expressly so agrees.

NJFLA leave will be unpaid unless the employee has available applicable accrued vacation, sick or personal paid leave. In the event the employee has such available earned vacation, sick or personal paid time off, the employee must use it during NJFLA leave. Once such applicable paid time off is exhausted, the remainder of the NJFLA leave will be unpaid.

The Borough of New Providence is responsible for designating an employee's leave as NJFLA leave, based upon information and/or the request for leave from the employee.

“Serious Health Condition” for purposes of the NJFLA generally means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which requires:

- inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility; or
- continuing medical treatment or continuing supervision by a health care provider.
- For NJFLA purposes, “continuing medical treatment or continuing supervision by a health care provider” means:
 1. A period of incapacity (that is, inability to work, attend school, or perform regular daily activities due to a serious health condition, treatment therefrom or recovery therefrom) of more than three consecutive days, and any subsequent treatment or period of incapacity relating to the same condition that also involves:
 - a. Treatment two or more times by a health care provider; or
 - b. Treatment by a health care provider on one occasion which results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the supervision of a health care provider;
 2. Any period of incapacity due to pregnancy, or for prenatal care;
 3. Any period of incapacity or treatment for incapacity due to a chronic serious health condition;
 4. Period of incapacity, which is permanent or long-term, due to a condition for which treatment may not be effective (such as Alzheimer's Disease, a severe stroke or the terminal stages of a disease) where the individual is under continuing

- supervision of, but need not be receiving active treatment by, a health care provider; or
5. Any period of absence to receive multiple treatments (including any period of recovery there from) by a health care provider or by a provider of health care services under orders of or on referral by a health care provider, either for restorative surgery after an accident or other injury, or for a condition that would likely result in a period of incapacity for more than three (3) consecutive calendar days in the absence of medical intervention or treatment, such as cancer (chemotherapy, radiation, etc.), severe arthritis (physical therapy) or kidney disease (dialysis).

“Health Care Provider” for purposes of the NJFLA means any person licensed under federal, state, or local law, or the laws of a foreign nation, to provide health care services; or any other person who has been authorized to provide health care by a licensed health care provider.

C. MAINTENANCE OF HEALTH BENEFITS

During NJFLA leave, the employee’s health insurance coverage will be maintained under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had continued to work. Employees may be required to pay their share of health insurance premiums while on leave, where consistent with applicable collective negotiations agreements and/or health insurance plans in effect at the time of leave.

D. JOB RESTORATION

Generally, upon return from NJFLA leave, the employee will be restored to his/her position, unless the position has been filled, in which case employee will be restored to an equivalent position with like seniority, status, employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.

If the Borough of New Providence should experience a reduction in force or layoffs, an employee who would have been affected by such reduction in force or layoff had he/she not been on NJFLA leave is not entitled to be returned to work following exhaustion or completion of NJFLA leave. However, the employee retains all rights under any applicable collective negotiations agreement concerning layoff and recall.

The Borough of New Providence may deny NJFLA leave to certain of its highest paid employees to the extent such denial is necessary to prevent substantial and grievous economic injury to the operations of the Borough of New Providence. In such case, notice will be provided to employee.

E. NOTICE AND CERTIFICATION

When NJFLA leave is sought due to the birth or placement of a child for adoption, the employee must provide at least thirty (30) days' notice of the intention to take NJFLA leave, except where emergent circumstances merit shorter notice. When NJFLA leave is sought due to a family member's serious illness, the employee must provide at least thirty (30) days' notice of the intention to take NJFLA leave, except where emergent circumstances warrant shorter notice.

The Borough requires that employee who requests family leave sign a form of certification that the employee is taking family leave for the birth or adoption of a child or to care for a family member because of the family member's serious health condition, whichever is applicable. Any employee who refuses to sign such certification may be denied the requested leave. An employee who provides a false certification will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination. In addition, a certification will be required of a health care provider attesting to the serious health condition of a family member – setting forth the date on which the serious health condition commenced, the probable duration of the condition and the medical facts within the provider's knowledge regarding the condition. Other certifications may be required as permitted by law.

F. NO RETALIATION

There shall be no interference with nor retaliation against any employee for exercising his/her rights under the NJFLA and/or for taking NJFLA leave. Any such concerns should be immediately reported to the Borough Administrator.

NOTE: The NJFLA statute supersedes any statement herein to the extent that any statement herein is contrary to current NJFLA statute.

G. QUESTIONS

Any questions regarding this policy or NJFLA leave should be directed to the Manager of Payroll and Human Resources.

Section 37. Military leave.

A. Leave of absence for active duty in Military Reserve Corp or National Guard of a state other than New Jersey.

1. A full-time employee of the Borough, who is a member of the organized reserve of the Army of the United States, United States Naval Reserve, United States Air Force Reserve or United States Marine Corps Reserve, or other organization affiliated therewith, including the National Guard of other states, shall be entitled, in addition to pay received, if any, as a member of a reserve component of the Armed Forces of the United States, to leave of absence from his/her employment with the Borough without loss of pay or time on all work days on which he/she shall be engaged in any period of Federal active duty, provided, however, that such leaves of absence shall not exceed 30 work days in any calendar year. Such leave of absence shall be in addition to the regular vacation or other accrued leave allowed such employee. Any leave of absence for such duty in excess of 30 work days shall be without pay but without loss of time.

2. Notwithstanding 1 above, an employee who has been employed for less than one year shall receive for the service described above leave without pay but without loss of time.

B. Leave of absence for active duty in NJ National Guard and other state military.

1. A full-time employee of the Borough who is a member of the National Guard or other organized militia of the State of New Jersey shall be entitled, in addition to pay received, if any, as a member of the National Guard or organized militia, to leave of absence from employment without loss of pay or time on all days during which he/she shall be engaged in any period of State or Federal active duty; provided, however, that the leaves of absence for Federal active duty or active duty for training shall not exceed 90 work days in the aggregate in a calendar year. Any leave of absence for such duty in excess of 90 work days shall be without pay but without loss of time.

2. Notwithstanding 1 above, an employee who has been employed for less than one year shall receive for the service described above leave without pay but without loss of time.

C. Additional Differential Pay For Employees on Active Duty

After exhaustion of the mandated statutory paid leave for military service in a calendar year, as noted in A and B above, employees remaining on active duty may be granted salary equal to the difference between the Borough employee's base salary and the employee's military base pay, provided the employee provides proof of military service and "base pay" received from the military. The period of time that this differential is paid is at the discretion of the Borough Council and may be capped.

D. Benefits For Employees on Active Duty

Employees on military leave for active duty as noted in A. and B. above shall continue to accrue seniority, as if they were on the job. Health and other benefits for employees and their eligible dependents will continue for the statutory paid leave period. Thereafter, at the discretion of the Borough Council, health benefits for the employee and his/her eligible dependents may be continued for the same period of time as the additional differential pay period noted above duration of active duty service. Thereafter, employees on military leave may exercise COBRA rights.

E. Military Leave for Borough Employees on Inactive Duty For Training

1. In accordance with State and/or Federal law and regulations, the Borough shall grant a qualifying employee, who is a member of the U.S. military reserves or the New Jersey State militia or the organized militia of another State, a leave of absence, without pay, for Inactive Duty For Training Service. Inactive Duty For Training Service is commonly referred to as weekend drill.

2. A qualifying employee granted Military Leave of Absence, without pay, for Inactive Duty For Training that is less than two (2) consecutive weeks, shall continue to accrue vacation, personal, and sick leave. A qualifying employee granted a Military Leave of Absence for Inactive Duty for Training, without pay, that is more than two (2) consecutive weeks, shall not accrue vacation, personal, and/or sick leave during such leave of absence.

3. A qualifying employee granted a Military Leave of Absence, without pay, for Inactive Duty For Training may, with advance notice, use accrued vacation, personal leave, or floating holidays. Sick Leave shall not be used for Military Leave of Absence for Inactive Duty For Training.

F. Persons Entering Active Military or Naval Service in Time of War or Emergency

A. In accordance with N.J.S.A. 38:23-4, a Borough employee who enters active military or naval service of the United States or New Jersey in time of war or emergency is entitled to leave of absence for the duration of such service plus three months after discharge. Such leave is without pay. If the person receives anything other than a dishonorable discharge, the person is entitled to his/her position, provided the person applies for the position before the leave expires. If any such person shall be incapacitated by wound or sickness at time of discharge from the military, the leave shall be extended to three months after recovery, or 2 years from date of discharge, whichever shall occur first.

G. Notice of Leave; Verification of Leave

In accordance with law, an employee who requests a leave of absence for military leave of any type must provide notice to his/her department Supervisor and the Borough Administrator. This notice must be provided at least 30 days prior to the employee's departure, unless such notice is precluded by military necessity or, under all relevant circumstances, is otherwise impossible or unreasonable. In addition, in order to receive compensation and /or benefits as noted herein, an employee on military leave must provide the Borough with a copy of the military orders and, if appropriate, military base pay documentation.

H. Reinstatement Under USERRA

An employee on military leave is entitled to reinstatement as follows:

Except with respect to persons whose disability occurred in or was aggravated by military service, the position into which an employee is reinstated is determined by priority, based on the length of military service. The rules are:

Service of 1 to 90 days: (a) in the job the person would have held had he or she remained continuously employed (possibly a promoted position), so long as the person is qualified for the job or can become qualified after reasonable efforts by the employer, or (b), if the person cannot become qualified, in the position the person was employed on the date of the commencement of the military service.

Service of 91 or more days: (a) same as for service of 1 to 90 days, or a position of like seniority, status and pay, so long as he or she is qualified, or (b) if the person cannot become qualified, in the position the person was employed on the date of the commencement of the military service or which nearly approximates that position.

Note: The reemployment position with the highest priority reflects the "escalator" principle, which requires that a returning service member steps back onto the seniority escalator at the point the person would have occupied if the person had remained continuously employed.

USERRA specifies that returning employees must be "promptly reemployed." What is prompt will depend on individual circumstances. Additionally, depending on the length of service, returning employees must take certain steps in order to be entitled to reemployment. This could include submitting an application for reemployment. If you are a returning employee, please contact the Borough Administrator for more information.

The laws governing leaves of absence for military service are lengthy and complex. As a result, this policy may not address all issues concerning your rights during military leave. If issues arise that are not addressed in this handbook, the Borough will abide by applicable state and federal law. Should you have any questions or require further information, please contact the Borough Administrator.

Section 38. Leave under the New Jersey Security and Financial Empowerment Act ("N.J. SAFE Act").

The N.J. SAFE Act provides that an employee who was a victim of an incident of domestic violence or a sexually violent offense, or whose child, parent, spouse, domestic partner, or a civil union partner was a victim, is entitled to unpaid leave of absence of no more than 20 days in one 12-month period, to be used in the 12-month period next following the incident of domestic violence or sexually violent offense.

To be eligible, the employee must have been employed for at least 12 months for not less than 1,000 hours during the immediately preceding 12 months. The unpaid leave may be taken intermittently in intervals of no less than a day for the purpose of engaging in any of the following activities as they relate to the incident of domestic violence or sexually violent offense:

- (1) seeking medical attention for, or recovering from, physical or psychological injuries caused by domestic or sexual violence to the employee or the employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner;

- (2) obtaining services from a victim services organization for the employee or the employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner;
- (3) obtaining psychological or other counseling for the employee or the employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner;
- (4) participating in safety planning, temporary or permanently relocating, or taking other actions to increase the safety of the employee or the employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner from future domestic or sexual violence or to ensure economic security;
- (5) seeking legal assistance or remedies to ensure the health and safety of the employee or the employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner, including preparing for, or participating in, any civil or criminal legal proceeding related to or derived from domestic or sexual violence; or
- (6) attending, participating in, or preparing for a criminal or civil court proceeding relating to an incident of domestic or sexual violence of which the employee or the employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner was a victim;

An employee is not entitled to more than twenty (20) days of combined N.J. SAFE Act leave in any twelve (12) month period. N.J. SAFE Act leave may be taken intermittently in increments of no less than one (1) day.

When an employee takes leave for a reason also covered by the FMLA and/or NJFLA, the leave shall be simultaneously counted against an employee's leave entitlement under all such statutes to the extent applicable and permitted by law.

N.J. SAFE Act leave will be unpaid unless the employee has available applicable accrued vacation, sick or personal paid leave. In the event the employee has such available accrued vacation, sick or personal paid time off, the employee must use it for N.J. SAFE Act leave. Once such applicable paid time off is exhausted, the remainder of N.J. SAFE Act leave will be unpaid.

Prior to taking the leave, an employee must, if the necessity for the leave is foreseeable, provide the Borough with written notice of the need for the leave. The Borough requires that a period of leave be supported with documentation of the domestic violence or sexually violent offense which is the basis for the leave. The law specifies the types of documentation deemed sufficient to support a period of leave. The employee shall be regarded as having provided sufficient documentation if the employee provides one or more of the following:

- (1) a domestic violence restraining order or other documentation of equitable relief issued by a court of competent jurisdiction;

- (2) a letter or other written documentation from the county or municipal prosecutor documenting the domestic violence or sexually violent offense;
- (3) documentation of the conviction of a person for the domestic violence or sexually violent offense;
- (4) medical documentation of the domestic violence or sexually violent offense;
- (5) certification from a certified Domestic Violence Specialist or the director of a designated domestic violence agency or Rape Crisis Center, that the employee or employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner is a victim of domestic violence or a sexually violent offense; or
- (6) other documentation or certification of the domestic violence or sexually violent offense provided by a social worker, member of the clergy, shelter worker, or other professional who has assisted the employee or employee's child, parent, spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner in dealing with the domestic violence or sexually violent offenses.

Any information regarding a leave taken pursuant to the provisions of the N.J. SAFE Act and any failure of an employee to return to work will be held in the strictest confidentiality, unless disclosure is voluntarily authorized in writing by the employee or is required by a federal or State law, rule or regulation.

NO RETALIATION

There shall be no retaliation, harassment, or discrimination with respect to the compensation, terms, conditions or privileges of employment of any employee who takes or requests N.J. SAFE Act leave and/or exercises any right under the N.J. SAFE Act.

Section 39. Special Leaves of Absence.

Other leaves of absence (not for medical or military reasons), may be granted, except for certain essential positions, if deemed beneficial to the Borough in its sole discretion, for a period not to exceed six months with the approval of the Borough Council and upon the recommendation of the Borough Administrator. Each situation is unique and shall not be construed as precedential for other employees at other times, nor even for the requesting employee at another time. Such leave shall be taken without pay but shall not be construed as constituting a break in service. All employee benefits shall be suspended for the duration of such leave. Employees may, however, at their option, preserve employee benefits for the duration of any approved leave by paying the Borough, in advance, the total cost, including the Borough's share, of such employee benefits for the period of approved leave but not greater than 180 consecutive calendar days or the period provided by law where COBRA coverage is triggered.

Section 40. Jury duty.

- A. Employees who are summoned for service as grand or petit jurors are required to advise their immediate supervisor immediately and provide Human Resources with a copy of the jury summons so that arrangements may be made to be excused from work by the Borough on the days the employee is required to be present in court.
- B. Fulltime and permanent part-time employees shall receive their regular rate of pay for jury duty.
- C. Employee must report to work on any day where the court releases juror before noon (midday).

ARTICLE VII – Job-Related Disabilities

Section 41. Qualifications, Terms of Payment.
