Dear Cindy:

It is our pleasure to advise you that the Fiscal Subcommittee of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders has met and has recommended to the full Board a sponsorship for your New Providence Independence Day Celebration in the amount of $800; which is scheduled for a vote at the next Regular Meeting of the Board on June 20th.

Upon the Board's vote, someone from the Freeholder Office will contact you to advise you if it was approved or not. We have already begun speaking to our colleagues and are encouraged in gaining the Board's approval.

As you are aware, you are required to designate the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders as a sponsor on any flyers, social media posts and other promotional materials you plan to use. The County may require a banner and/or an information table to be displayed as a proud co-sponsor of this event. Someone from our office will be contacting you to assist you with this condition.

We also ask that you please include the Freeholder Board in any invitations to upcoming events your organization may have in the future.

We thank you for building upon this partnership with Union County and we look forward to the events and endeavors you embark upon in the future!

Sincerely,

Bette Jane Kowalski, Freeholder Chair,
Board of Chosen Freeholders

Alexander Mirabella, Chairman,
Freeholder Fiscal Subcommittee
